
QC Tech

Hours: M-F 6:00 am to 4:30 pm (Occasional Saturday shifts may be required)

This position would include but are not limited to the following duties:

- Perform hourly QC checks of production
- QC monitoring equipment and record results into system
- Provide details on how quality issues were found and report findings and corrective actions to Corporate Quality Assurance Manager
- Receive samples and coordinate testing against specifications
- Composite samples for microbiological testing
- Complete lab request forms and deliver samples to lab
- Create product or process standards as needed within the QC department
- Accurately enter testing data into QC release system
- Work with Production Supervisor to ensure correct specification are in the system
- Assist with QC training for new employees
- Inspect pest control devices and report findings to QA Manager and pest control company
- Perform basic QC tests with provide equipment and report results
- Assist QA manager during customer audits
- Perform self-audits of processing and warehousing locations
- Work with the corporate Quality Assurance Manager on issues and quality reports

Experience/Skills that will help with your success in this role:

- Integrity, accuracy, attention to details, and taking ownership of assignments are paramount
- 2+ years working in a QC food processing environment
- Able to use Microsoft Word, Excel and Outlook
- Familiarity with ASTA and AOAC testing methods a plus
- Able to lift up to 55 lbs. regularly
- Ability to manage tasks independently
- Ability to advise other departments of QA/QC related concerns and observations.
- Strong communication skills needed
- Bilingual (Spanish) a plus
- Knowledge of HACCP a plus, certification desirable
- Provide leadership during HACCP committee meetings
- Must have valid driver's license and reliable transportation
- Criminal background check and drug test may be required

If you are ready to join a great team and provide experience to help our growth please send resume, compensation requirement, and a cover letter that addresses your experience in the food industry.